As I watched them, I saw a complete, unique society developing within the walls of a building. There were emotions present: confusion, surprise, determination, joy, sadness, and love. They were meeting problems boldly, discovering lasting friendships, and preparing to emerge into a world in which they would use skills and knowledge acquired here to aid them in establishing a way of life.

The Pioneer football season was one of victory and heartbreak. After an opening win over Hurly, the Pioneers lost a thriller to Patrick Henry. "Big Red" then went on to win three in a row as they prepared for their annual grudge game with Castlewood. The "Blue Devils" ground attack and the inability to convert extra points eventually did away with the Pioneers, as Lebanon lost 15-12. Down after the Castlewood loss, "Big Red" came back to edge St. Paul and lose to a highly competitive Saltville team. The Pioneers then put it all together as they came back to defeat Holston and Twin Springs, ending up a fine 7-3 season.

The Pioneers started off with a win over Honaker and then two straight losses. The "Big Red Machine" began to move, winning eleven straight games, including a revenge win over Castlewood before losing at Saltville. The "Big Red" won seven more games, along with the 'County Crown', before losing to Castlewood in the District Tournament finals. The Pioneers earned the right to go to the Regional Tournament at Powell Valley and kept the crowd on the edge of their seats with a last second win over Pennington Gap and a double-overtime victory over Appalachia. The Pioneers were unable to defeat Thomas Walker and came home with only the runner-up trophy. We are very proud of the job our team did this year and with Jan Wright, Joe Jones, and Tom Bondurant back to lead next year's squad along with a strong J.V. team, we are looking forward to another winning year at L.H.S.

The arrival of a visiting New York glamour girl at the typically quiet home of the Hartman family signals the onset of many hilarious events, as the refreshing three-act comedy, "And Came the Spring," begins. The play, written by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes, reveals the frantic, comical incidents occurring during the week of spring vacation in a small town . . . goals reached, young love awakened, and the revival of faith in the younger generation.

LEARNING . . .

EXPERIENCING . . .

AND EMERGING . . .

The art of life is to know how to enjoy a little and to endure much

—William Hazlitt

To-day is not yesterday. We ourselves change. How then, can our works and thoughts, if they are always to be the fittest, continue always the same. Change indeed is painful, yet ever needful; and if memory have its force and worth, so also has hope.

—Thomas Carlyle

IN DEDICATION...

Owing so much to one who has enriched our memories with her knowledge and with her involvement in our activities, we, the Senior Class of 1971 dedicate our PIONEER to Mrs. Alma K. Buckles

I wanted to write you some words you'd remember words so alert they'd leap from the paper and crawl up your shoulders and lie by your ears and be there to comfort you down through the years,
But it was cloudy that day and I was lazy and so I stayed in bed just thinking about it.

I wanted to write you one last, long love song that said what I feel one final time
Not comparing your eyes and mouth to the stars
But telling you only how like yourself you are
But by the time I thought of it, found a pen, put the pen to ink, the ink to paper,
you were gone

And so this song has no words

—Rod McKuen

Much patience and diligent work on behalf of many people is necessary to the formulation of a meaningful annual. To Mr. Horton, Mrs. Bundy, Miss Howard, and Mr. Phillipps . . . my special thanks for your enduring patience and capable guidance in yearbook planning. I am grateful most of all to Sandra, Cathy, John, and Mike who gave their time and talent in an effort to capture the atmosphere of life at Lebanon High School

Months of hurried planning and quick glances over master layouts and specification forms have become lasting memories as the 1971 PIONEER unfolded from the thoughts of a five member staff. "The Society at Lebanon High School . . ." gradually revealed itself through months of change, and it has been our privilege to be able to record it in the form of a memory book. It is my sincere wish that each of you will find some part of your year within these pages

Sincerely,
Kay Pyle
Editor

ADVERTISEMENTS...

A SALUTE TO THE ADVERTISERS

The students of Lebanon High School would like to thank the advertising firms represented within the following pages for the major role they have played in the production of the 1971 PIONEER.

The staff of the PIONEER has worked to produce what we feel is an outstanding annual, but no amount of hard work could produce such a book without the wholehearted support of the advertisers.

Certainly the Class of 1971 and those that follow will remember you as friends of Lebanon High School. We wish to express our appreciation to you for helping us make our yearbook a success.
